

SUE GOLDEN

Sue Golden is a retired lawyer. She graduated from Russell Sage College and the Columbus School of Law at the Catholic University of America. After law school, Sue clerked for the Honorable John Hargrove on the United States District Court for the District of Maryland and was a guest clerk on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

During her legal career, Sue worked for a number of law firms in Washington, DC, including Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson and Shaw, Pittman, Potts & Trowbridge. She was in the Enforcement Division and then was promoted to be Deputy Director of the Office of Municipal Securities at the Securities and Exchange Commission. Sue also worked in the Office of the General Counsel at Fannie Mae and was the General Counsel at Aether Systems, Inc. Sue taught securities law at both the Columbus School of Law and Georgetown University Law Center.

Sue currently serves on the Board of Directors at the Kernstown Battlefield in Winchester, Virginia. In addition to serving on the Board, she is the volunteer coordinator, press liaison, and special events coordinator at Kernstown.

Sue previously was a member of the Boards of Directors of the Cedar Creek Battlefield Foundation, Belle Grove Plantation, and Iona Senior Services.

She divides her time between her home in Washington, D.C. and her farm in the Shenandoah Valley.
